PREFACE

This Dissertation report is a study on the topic "PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS OF DAIRY FARMING" (A study of Nalbari District with special reference to Pub-Nalbari CDB).

There is enough scope of dairy development in Nalbari District, people are accustomed in rearing cattle and it is one of the most important traditional business of the people of Nalbari District.

To prepare this project report, I have taken inputs from books and interest and collected some data from field study within a very short period of time. Because of this, I cannot claim that the project report contains A to Z on Dairy Farm but I do believe that it concisely deals with the basic fundamentals of Dairy Farm.

While preparing this project report, I have received untinted support and inspiration from my supervisor Sri Smita Choudhury. I am ever grateful for this.

By this project report, I obtained many experience. I am going to present all these experience in my project report. This report is prepared as a part fulfillment of M.Com, Accountancy (major), Examination 2024
